Her home

Jazz lives in a small, yet organised apartment with her partner Ryan. they are saving money for when they start a family.

Jazz

“I love being organised. I keep track of everything, making sure that I always have a plan. I always want to be prepared.”

Dimensions

- She integrates work and personal life
- Organization and intent are crucial
- She uses the notes app both for productivity and emotional expression.

motivations

- Her family. She works hard at her job as well as within her relationship to pursue her dream of having a happy family of her own.
- Self expression. additionally to writing for organization, she writes to express herself. This is her outlet for discovering and improving herself creatively.
- Learning new skills. She always loves learning new skills and finds fulfillment this way. She primarily loves learning ways she can manage her time better, be more organised or impressive talents and party tricks.
